SANTO'S DRINKERIA

The Rooftop At Casa Santo Stefano

Planeta winemaker Patricia Toth in Sicily with RG

SANTO'S DRINKERIA E DEGUSTAZIONI

One thing the Italians are very good at is adopting English words and giving them a special twist.

Once while I was in Sicily, I stopped into what was billed as a “drinkeria” for an afternoon aperol spritz and antipasti. I enjoyed a perfect afternoon.

I wanted to bring that experience to Tampa, to create a space where you could sample flavor-packed Sicilian street food, tasty small plates, craft cocktails and wines.

For us, Santo's is a more casual aspect of Casa Santo Stefano – an indoor-outdoor space with a rooftop view of historic Ybor City.

Come before your reservation or relax for a while after you dine with us.

Godere! (Enjoy!)

WINES OF SICILY

Sicily is part of Italy's ancient winemaking traditions, yet this island in the Mediterranean Sea also produces some of the country's most modern and exciting wines. Today, quality Sicilian wines are the region's focus, with an emphasis on grape varieties that thrive in the island's hot weather and volcanic soils. It is important to Richard Gonzmart for our guests not only to experience the delicious cuisine of Sicily, but also to experience the wines from this beautiful region.
